II. CORPORATE BACKGROUND:

UNDP works in about 170 countries and territories, helping to achieve the eradication of poverty, and the reduction of inequalities and exclusion. We help countries to develop policies, leadership skills, partnering abilities, institutional capabilities and build resilience in order to sustain development results.

UNDP is working to strengthen new frameworks for development, disaster risk reduction and climate change. We support countries' efforts to achieve the new Sustainable Development Goals, which will guide global development priorities through 2030. The key 2030 Agenda principle of leaving no one behind and stamping out inequality is at the core of everything we do.

UNDP focuses on helping countries build and share solutions in three main areas:

- Sustainable development
- Democratic governance and peacebuilding
- Climate and disaster resilience

In all our activities, we encourage the protection of human rights and the empowerment of women, minorities and the poorest and most vulnerable.

III. INTERNSHIP OFFICE BACKGROUND:

UNDP works on citizen security from a prevention perspective with the goal to create the social conditions that allow sustainable results on the national level as well as sub-national and local levels. UNDP Panama focuses its work on the following areas:

- Development and strengthening of National Public Policies on citizen security
- Promotion of local management of citizen security

- Improvement of information management
- Modernization of security and justice sectors.
- Prevention of armed violence and improvement of arms and ammunition control
- Improving justice and security for women

UNDP in Panama supports access to justice projects and programs for high priority groups, justice system reform initiatives and prevention of violence in the country. UNDP interventions are aligned with the National Government Strategic Plan, which emphasized the lines of action for the country's Security Strategy and "State Pact for Justice" agenda for the reform of the Judicial
